

Trees for Future Minnesota Cities: Those Likely to Thrive in a Changing Climate

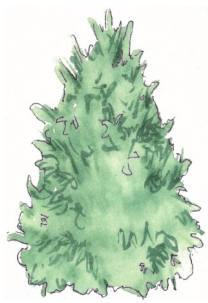

Species Native to Midwest Region

Height: 50-60 ft.

Black Cherry

Height: 20-40 ft.

Black Hills Spruce

Height: 75-100 ft.

Black Walnut

Height: 20-35 ft.

Blue Beech

Height: 60-80 ft.

Bur Oak

Height: 12-15 ft.

Chestnut Crabapple

Height: 60-70 ft.

Chestnut Oak

Height: 40-50 ft.

Eastern Red-Cedar

Height: 40-60 ft.

Hackberry

Height: 25-40 ft.

Ironwood

Height: 45-50 ft.

Jack Pine

Height: 60-75 ft.

Kentucky Coffeetree

*Original Illustrations by Alissa Cotton & Monica Randazzo

Department of
FOREST RESOURCES
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Height: 40-60 ft.

Northern Catalpa

Height: 50-60 ft.

Northern White Cedar

Height: 15-25 ft.

Pagoda Dogwood

Height: 60-100 ft.

Ponderosa Pine

Height: 55-60 ft.

'Prairie Expedition' American Elm

Height: 40-60 ft.

Red Maple

Height: 40-70 ft.

River Birch

Height: 15-25 ft.

Serviceberry

Height: 50-60 ft.

Shingle Oak

Height: 70-90 ft.

'Siouxland' Poplar

Height: 70-90 ft.

Tulip Tree

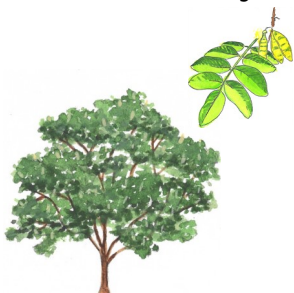

Height: 50-80 ft.

White Pine

Introduced Species

Height: 20-30 ft.

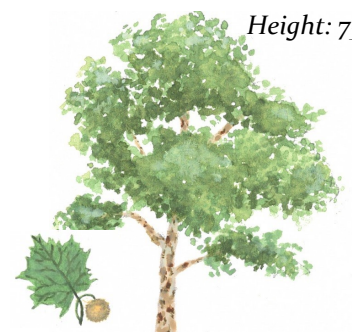

Amur Maackia

Height: 15-25 ft.

Katsura Tree

Height: 75-100 ft.

London Plane Tree